

Beyond the Sunset

...And the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. Rev. 21:18

1. Be - yond the sun-set's ra - diant glow      There is a bright-er world, I know,
2. Be - yond the sun-set's pur - ple rim,      Be - yond the twi-light, deep and dim,
3. Be - yond the des - ert, dark and drear,      The gold - en cit - y will ap - pear;

Where gold - en glo - ries ev - er shine,      Be - yond the thought of day's de - cline.
Where clouds and dark-ness nev - er come,      My soul shall find its heav'n-ly home.
And morn - ing's love - ly beams a - rise      Up - on my man - sion in the skies.

Refrain

Be - yond the sun-set's ra-diant glow,      There is a bright-er world, I know;
ra - diant glow,

Be - yond the sun-set I may spend      De - light - ful days that nev - er end.
