

I Will Be Content

*I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content...
I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Php. 4:11,13*

1. I am re - solved with all I am, In what - so - ev - er state I am,
2. He's work - ing what is best for me, I'll trust Him though I can - not see,
3. He's all I want, He's all I need, His pres - ence sweet is all I plead,
4. The Lord has done so much for me, Oh, how can I un - grate - ful be?

I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent. In calm or storm, in good or ill,
I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent. It's not for me to un - der - stand,
I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent. I will not mur - mur nor re - pine,
I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent. No good from me will He with - hold

I know the Lord is with me still, I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent.
But hold to His un - chang - ing hand, I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent.
But glo - ry in His life di - vine, I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent.
If I am right - eous by His blood, I will be con - tent, I will be con - tent.
