

Shadows

Who is among you that feareth the Lord... that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in... the Lord. Isa. 50:10
I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Jn. 8:12

1. Oft we speak a - bout the shad - ows which be - set us As we trav - el on - ward
2. On our path the sun of right - eous - ness is shin - ing; We'll see shad - ows if our
3. So, if e'er you feel your spir - it has grown wea - ry, You may know your back is
4. Let us o - pen wide our dark - ened hearts to Je - sus, He who said that of this on our home - ward way; But the shades, how - ev - er dark, will nev - er fret us backs are turned to Him; Turn a - bout, and in - stant - ly you will be find - ing turned un - to the light; Turn to Je - sus and your heart will not be drear - y, world He is the light; From the shad - ows of this life He'll sure - ly free us,

Refrain

If this truth we will re - mem - ber eve - ry day.
That be - fore you lies not e'en the shad - ow's rim. There can be no shad - ow where the sun's not
He will flood it with His sun - shine warm and bright.
And will cheer us e - ven in the dark - est night.

shin - ing, It's the sun - light forms the shad - ows, as we know;
sun - light forms the shad - ows as we know;

Face the sun, and you will cease your sad re - pin - ing, As your path will be il - lum ined by its glow.
