

The Old-Time Religion

*Earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 1:3
Thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. For with thee is the fountain of life. Psa. 36:7-9*

1. I be-lieve in the old-time re-li-gion, For it saves from all sin here be-low,
2. I be-lieve in a heart-felt re-li-gion That brings joy to the soul eve-ry day;
3. I be-lieve in a ho-ly re-li-gion, For the saints of all ag-es have told
4. I be-lieve in the old-time re-li-gion, For we know we are right with our God;

Gives me peace pass-ing all un-der-stand-ing, While the riv-er of pleas-ure doth flow.
The as-sur-ance of sins all for-giv-en, Through the blood they are all washed a-way.
How it saved them from sin and its bond-age, When they heard the sweet sto-ry of old.
And there's joy in our hearts as we're walk-ing In the paths which our fa-thers have trod.

Refrain

Oh, give me the old-time re-li-gion, Oh, give me the joy I can know;
the old-time re-li-gion, I can know;

I be-lieve in the old-time re-li-gion, As our fa-thers re-ceived long a-go.
the old-time re-li-gion,
