

Will You Be Mine?

I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. Jer. 31:3

I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. Sng. 6:3

1. While bro - ken - heart - ed, scarred with sin, While walk - ing wretch - ed - ly in shame,
 2. He wooed me in such ten - der ways, He prom - ised to pro - tect, pro - vide;
 3. Could I His of - fered love re - fuse? Could I His year - ning cast a - side?
 4. Can I such won - drous love re - pay? A thou - sand years can nev - er earn
 5. Oh, wea - ry one, can you not see? The Son of God has called your name;

I felt a love that sought to win, I heard a voice that called my name.
 His all He pledged with lov - ing gaze, That I should e'er with Him a - bide.
 For I was asked, and I must choose: A black - ened soul or spot - less bride.
 Such love as this; but this I may: With all to love Him in re - turn.
 Ye lone - ly, lis - ten to His plea, For you, yes, e - ven you He came.

Yes, Je - sus, Lov - er of my soul, Gave me the great - est val - en - tine:
 He gave me glimps - es of His grace, The splen - dors that a - round Him shine;
 To Him that bled to make me free I could but say, "I will be Thine";
 'Tis bliss to know I dwell with - in The o - cean of His love di - vine—
 He wants to fill your bro - ken heart, Your hurt to heal, do not de - cline;

He prom - ised there to make me whole, In love He asked, "Will you be Mine?"
 With ar - dent, long - ing, fer - vent face, In love He asked, "Will you be Mine?"
 Yes, Je - sus shed His love on me, Such love that asks, "Will you be Mine?"
 Such love that sought my heart to win, Such love that asked, "Will you be Mine?"
 To you He would His love im - part— In love He asks, "Will you be Mine?"
